

GLOBAL REGULATORY, POLICY AND HARMONISATION EXPERTISE

EAS works with governments at national, regional and international level to develop effective regulations and policies.

As global leaders in providing strategic advice on the impact of regulatory harmonisation, regional integration and the introduction of new regulatory systems, we advise on the incorporation of international best practices into policy and regulatory frameworks to meet existing and potential future challenges.

EAS experts offer:

Insight into international trends, practices and innovative concepts

Tailored advice and solutions, incorporating specific ways of working in the local context

Public communication strategies of policies and regulations to stakeholders

Research on existing policies and regulations

Impact analyses of existing and new policies and regulations

Legislative alignment with international standards

Analysis of regulatory and policy strengths and weaknesses

Workshops and training seminars tailored to specific needs

Development of toolkits and briefing documents for engagement with stakeholders
